

Dr Mohamed Zayed MD

Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology Cairo University

More than 30 years of experience in the field of Obstetrics and Gynecology

Fellow of Vanderbilt University Medical school Nashville Tennessee (USA)

Leader of Endoscopic surgery at Cairo university Medical School

1. More than 20 years of experience in advanced endoscopic surgery for gynecology (first performed Laparoscopic hysterectomy in 1992,first laparoscopic radical hysterectomy in cancer Institute Cairo University)
2. Thousands of advanced endoscopic surgical procedure for gynecological diseases
3. Supervision and directed more than 100 endoscopic training program basic and advanced over 20 years
4. Invented surgical instrument for endoscopic surgery manufactured by Karl Storz company
5. Development of endoscopic surgical technique for the treatment of endometrioma in infertile patients
6. Development of new surgical staging for endometriosis in fertile patient

Chairman of endoscopic training program of endoscopic surgery at Cairo university

Chairman of postgraduate training committee Cairo University

Founder of assisted reproduction and IVF unit in 1996 at the Women's Medical Center Cairo – Egypt

Founder and Board member of reproductive medicine and IVF unit at Cairo University

Publications in the field of endoscopic surgery and infertility