

Dr. Mohammad AlAlool

Consultant Nephrology

LANGUAGES : ARABIC & ENGLISH

QUALIFICATIONS :

- American Board of Internal Medicine (Nephrology)
- American Board of Internal Medicine
- Doctor of Medicine from Ross University School of Medicine, Dominica, West Indies
- Nephrology Fellowship from University of Michigan Hospitals, Ann Arbor, MI
- Bachelor of Science in Biology from University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI

EXPERIENCE :

- He has more than 18 years as a nephrologist
- Worked as a consultant of Internal Medicine and Nephrology in prestigious hospitals in the USA
- Member of Society of Hospital Medicine, American Society of Nephrology, American Medical Association, and American College of Physicians
- Awarded a Making a Difference Physician Award – Ann Arbor, MI, Best Teaching Resident Award – Syracuse, NY
- Presented many medical researches as Blood Content of Asymmetric Dimethylarginine, Role of Potassium Sparing Diuretic, Spironolactone in Patients with End Stage Renal Disease and Diminished Cardiac Function and Coronary Revascularization in Renal Transplant Patients
- Published many publications such as Pulmonary Edema and Is it always Cardiac, A Rare Cause of Abdominal Pain in a Patient with Neurofibromatosis, Intra-cardiac Metastasis Diagnosed by Contrast Enhanced Trans-esophageal Echocardiography

INTERESTS :

- Acute & chronic kidney injury
- Acute and Chronic Dialysis
- Kidney Transplantation
- Hypertension
- Hypertensive kidney disease
- Diabetic nephropathy
- Glomerular disorders
- Hereditary Kidney disease

For Appointments

+ 971 6 505 8555