

Procedure :	PRO-2
Assignment :	ASGN-924
Evaluator Name :	Nasser
Evaluator Assignment Id :	30868
Attempt :	[1/3]
Examinee Name :	Nasser

Skill Set Detail

- Define the medication appropriateness review process
- Identify the indication of the review process.
- Verify the drug, dose, frequency and route of administration.
- Ensure that there is no therapeutic duplication
- Ensure that there is no real or potential allergies, sensitivities and potential organ toxicity
- Ensure that there is no real or potential interactions between the medication and other medications or food
- Ensure that there is no variation from hospital criteria for use;
- Verify the patient's weight (Weight-based dosaging) and other physiological information
- Ensure that there is no other contraindications.
- Staff is able to determine the circumstances when a formal appropriateness review is not required.

Staff is able to document the review process as per policy